

San Ildefonso Market, Malasaña's new food palace

Mercado del San Ildefonso, a three-story food emporium, has just opened on calle Fuencarral, 57, in Madrid's trendy area of Malasaña. Its open architecture and urban design are so cool that I think this market is already looking as good, if not better than Madrid's other amazing food markets—Mercado de San Antón and Mercado de San Miguel. Here's a look!

As you enter you find food stalls and a few stools. And then...

As you walk up to the second floor, you'll find a cozy outdoor seating area sandwiched between the market's neighbouring buildings.

On this floor you can delight in little food stalls serving up simple dishes, such as croquettes, meat skewers, seafood and more. At the tables you can look up to see beams, lights and windows.

On the top floor there's a full bar which also gives you views to the floors down below. You've just gotta go!

Here's the facade, since it's not as pretty on the outside, we've saved this photo for last...
