

Rave Market Winter Party – drink and shop second-hand in a nightclub!

Rave Market is an awesome (and free) second-hand market that takes place in one of Madrid's most popular nightclubs, Shoko, in La Latina. What's cool about this market is that, since it's in a discoteca, you'll find DJs spinning and lights flashing while you browse through second-hand items and stumble upon gems that will cost you peanuts. Also expect drinks and free treats. Here's the Facebook event page.
